

ABOUT US

Affiliation with the Jersey Shore Association for Human Resources (JSAHR) affords members local access to services and programs dedicated to the advancement of Human Resources in New Jersey, particularly Monmouth and Ocean counties.

The JSAHR is proud to be an affiliate chapter of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM). SHRM is the largest organization dedicated exclusively to the advancement of the human resources profession and represents the interests of over 300,000 members in more than 165 countries. National membership provides professionals with information and educational services to become leaders in their own organizations and the profession as well.

CORE VALUES

COLLABORATION

Work together as a unit; lean on and utilize fellow members' strengths, knowledge, and expertise so a goal may be accomplished.

PROFESSIONALISM

Conduct that exhibits integrity and ethics in all aspects of our lives. Accept we are accountable for our commitments as well as our actions.

VOLUNTEERISM

Share our talents within the Chapter to move our profession and community forward. Understand the sum of our strengths enables us to accomplish what may seem unattainable.

LEARNING/GROWTH

Share knowledge and expertise with fellow members. Present guest speakers who cover diverse topics that stretch us to develop and think critically in this ever-changing global environment.

INVITING

Provide a welcoming, inclusive and non-judgmental atmosphere open to all individuals.
