

The Jersey Shore Association for Human Resources April Webinar

COVID-19 Employment Laws and Benefits Update WEBINAR

The ever-changing COVID-19 landscape continues to bring new challenges and questions for employers. HR professionals are tasked to interpret and make recommendations on new federal and state regulations quickly. This presentation will address a number of employment and benefit issues that have evolved over the past month.

By attending this session, participants will have better knowledge of:

- The CARES Act – Understanding key provisions of this legislation and the aspects of the bill that have been clarified since its enactment
- The Paycheck Protection Program – Understanding eligibility, loan calculation, use of loan funds, and the loan forgiveness process
- New Jersey's Executive Order 119 Impact on Earned Sick Leave, Temporary Disability, and Family Leave
- Discussion of updated guidance on the Family First Coronavirus Response Act and other COVID-19 related issues
- Laid off/furloughed employees: What are the contractual allowances for each coverage for the requirement of employees being "Actively at Work" in order to be eligible
- When to move employees to COBRA/Continuation in the light of their employment status
- Medical contribution best practices during furlough periods
- How insurance carriers are addressing the costs of COVID testing and treatments
- Impact of waiting periods on employees re-enrolling in insurance plans after returning to work
- Question & Answer session
