HOT ISSUES IN EMPLOYMENT LAW – 2016

Biannual JSAHR Legal Seminar

This presentation will cover the top employment law issues impacting human resource professionals today, including recent developments in:

- The Department of Labor's overtime regulations – Practical Paths to Compliance
- Effectively managing workplace absences
- Effectively managing whistleblowers who remain employed and other considerations regarding whistleblowing
- Practical guidance in dealing with the EEOC and other government agencies

Presented by Jackson Lewis attorneys Richard Cino, Justin Cutlip, and Kelly Gunther

About Jackson Lewis, P.C. Jackson Lewis P.C. is among the largest firms in the country dedicated to representing management in labor, employment and benefits law, and related litigation. With 53 locations across the country, the firm has both a national perspective and a keen understanding of the nuances of regional business environments. Jackson Lewis represents employers before state and federal courts on a wide range of issues, including discrimination, wrongful discharge, retaliation, whistleblower, health, safety, wage/hour, pension and benefits. The firm's attorneys negotiate collective bargaining agreements, participate in arbitration proceedings, and represent union-free and unionized employers before the NLRB, OSHA, and other federal and state agencies.
